All time trials held at the ADT Event Center will be electronically timed and all bicycles used must meet UCI specifications. USADA may be on site to administer drug testing to all athletes that automatically qualify for the Junior World's Team. Additionally, USADA will also administer random tests all according to USADA rules and guidelines.

The time standards utilized by USAC, for all events except the mass start test, are based upon the results of 1 Top-6 placing in the relevant disciplines at the 2004 UCI World Junior Track Cycling Championships held at the ADT Event Center in Carson, CA. The Mass Start Tests are based upon the Elite Talent Pool test for Points Race riders. This test establishes that the rider has both anaerobic and aerobic power. This test has become the world standard that teams are using to measure potential in the points race, Madison and mass start track events. USAC has modified the times for the ADT Event Center.

Only times set at the ADT Event Center during selection events will be considered for nomination to the Talent Pool.
