Presents

Clemson Collegiate Classic

March 7th & 8th 2015

Clemson Cycling team would like to invite all collegiate athletes from across the SE to experience an exciting new challenge that can only be found in the upstate. This year, the team is introducing a new road race course that will find riders doing circuits of a 13 mi course of rolling hills. The crit will be very familiar as we revisit the beloved classic circuit around Glen Raven Custom Fabrics. There can be only be one winner; will it be the climber, the break-away artist, or will it come down to a raw sprint?
