EXPECTED BEHAVIOR

We are all guests to the communities we are racing in. Please act as a responsible adult. Don't do or say anything that will jeopardize the opportunity to return in future years. Leave the race venue cleaner than when you arrived by cleaning up after yourself and others. The race staff have worked very hard to provide these racing venues and bring you a quality event and experience. Please be on your best behavior and respect other people's property. Violators will be disciplined accordingly. You must pull over and stop when being passed by Emergency vehicles as if you were a car.

PUBLIC URINATION & NUDITY

DON'T DO IT! Enough said! Any rider seen doing this will be fined and DQ'd.

HELMETS ARE MANDATORY

At all times when participating in or preparing for an event held under USA Cycling permit, all licensees who are mounted on a bicycle shall wear a securely fastened helmet that meets USA Cycling recommended standards.

Race permitted through USA Cycling, USA Cycling rules to be applied. One day licenses will be sold on site. Annuals must be purchased on line at USACycling.org. Yellow line rule will be enforced.

USAC takes $3.75/day for value add services like
One Day USAC licenses are $10/day-can buy onsite

RACE NUMBERS

You must have your numbers to race. Do not fold, crumble or modify race number in any way. If you do you may be relegated.
